

LABOR LAW

The World Justice Project (WJP) is honored to count on your expertise for this questionnaire, which will be answered by highly qualified individuals around the world.

The questionnaire consists of 28 questions, and will take approximately 25 minutes to complete. Your responses will be aggregated with those of other experts and supplemented by the results of a randomized general population poll (GPP) conducted in the three largest cities of your country of practice. Together, this data will be used to evaluate adherence to the rule of law. The results will be published, alongside those of over 100 other countries worldwide, in the WJP Rule of Law Index® 2016 report, and in other reports produced by the WJP.

Your contribution will be acknowledged in the WJP Rule of Law Index® 2016 report, as well as on The World Justice Project's web page and other WJP materials (unless you choose to remain anonymous).

Thank you in advance for your time and attention. With your participation, this joint endeavor will contribute to strengthening the rule of law worldwide.

SECTION I

The following questions describe hypothetical situations. In each question, we will provide you with a set of assumptions. Please select the option that best represents your views.

Hypothetical Scenario No. 1

A medium-size private company (employer) refuses to pay a worker's salary for three months. The worker continues working during this time and his/her performance is satisfactory. After three months without pay, the worker is finally dismissed by the employer without any explanation or justification. Assume that the unpaid salary amounts to 0.15 times the GDP per capita of your country.

1. How likely is the worker (plaintiff) to resort to the following mechanisms to solve this conflict?

	Very likely	Likely	Unlikely	Very unlikely	Don't Know/ Not Applicable
(a) File a regular (labor) court lawsuit ¹
(b) File a claim before a small-claims court
(c) Use a labor arbitration mechanism
(d) Bring the issue before a mediator or a community leader
(e) Use a state enforcement agency, or other administrative body
(f) Take no action (i.e. , resign himself/herself to losing the money)

2. In practice, how long would it take to obtain a decision, or a judgment – starting from the moment the case is filed to the moment a decision or agreement is reached – if the worker uses the following mechanisms?

	Less than 1 month	Between 1 month and 1 year	Between 1 and 3 years	More than 3 years	More than 5 years	Don't Know/ Not Applicable
(a) Regular (labor) court lawsuit
(b) Small-claims court claim
(c) Labor arbitration mechanism
(d) Administrative body

¹ If there are no specialized labor courts, please refer to the regular court that is most likely to hear this case.

3. In practice, after a decision or agreement is reached, how long would it take for the worker to enforce this decision (compel the employer to pay), and collect the payment or compensation if the worker uses each of the following mechanisms?

	Less than 1 month	Between 1 month and 1 year	Between 1 and 3 years	More than 3 years	More than 5 years	Don't Know/ Not Applicable
(a) Court judgment
(b) Small-claims court decision
(c) Labor arbitration award or decision
(d) Administrative body decision

4. Based on your experience, what would be the expected costs² that the worker would incur, as a percentage of the claim (in this example 0.15 times the GDP per capita), to collect the unpaid salary if he/she:

	About 15% of the claim	About 30% of the claim	About 40% of the claim	More than 50% of the claim	Don't Know/ Not Applicable
(a) Files a regular (labor) court lawsuit
(b) Files a claim before a small-claims court
(c) Files a claim before a labor inspector or labor arbitration mechanism
(d) Files a claim before an administrative body

5. Based on your experience, how much would a typical lawyer charge to represent the worker in a case like this (in your country's local currency) if the worker uses a civil or labor court?

Amount _____

6. In a case like this, how likely are the following people to request a bribe (or other monetary inducement) from either party to perform their duties or to expedite the process?

(a) Judge or Magistrate
(b) Court personnel
(c) Labor inspector
(d) Mediator or arbitrator
(e) Police or law enforcement officer

² Please consider only the direct costs involved in the claim, such as attorney fees, court fees, and if relevant, bribes or other monetary inducements

7. Finally, assume that the worker sues the employer in a regular labor or commercial court. If the worker cannot afford a lawyer, how likely is he/she to be able to obtain pro-bono (subsidized or free-of-charge) legal representation from the government, a legal-aid-center, a non-governmental organization (NGO), etc.?
